

FY07 APPLY Board Information Professional Community (RC)

Prepared by: CDR Diane Boettcher, USN
CO, NR NNWC GNOSC

Date: 21 AUG 06

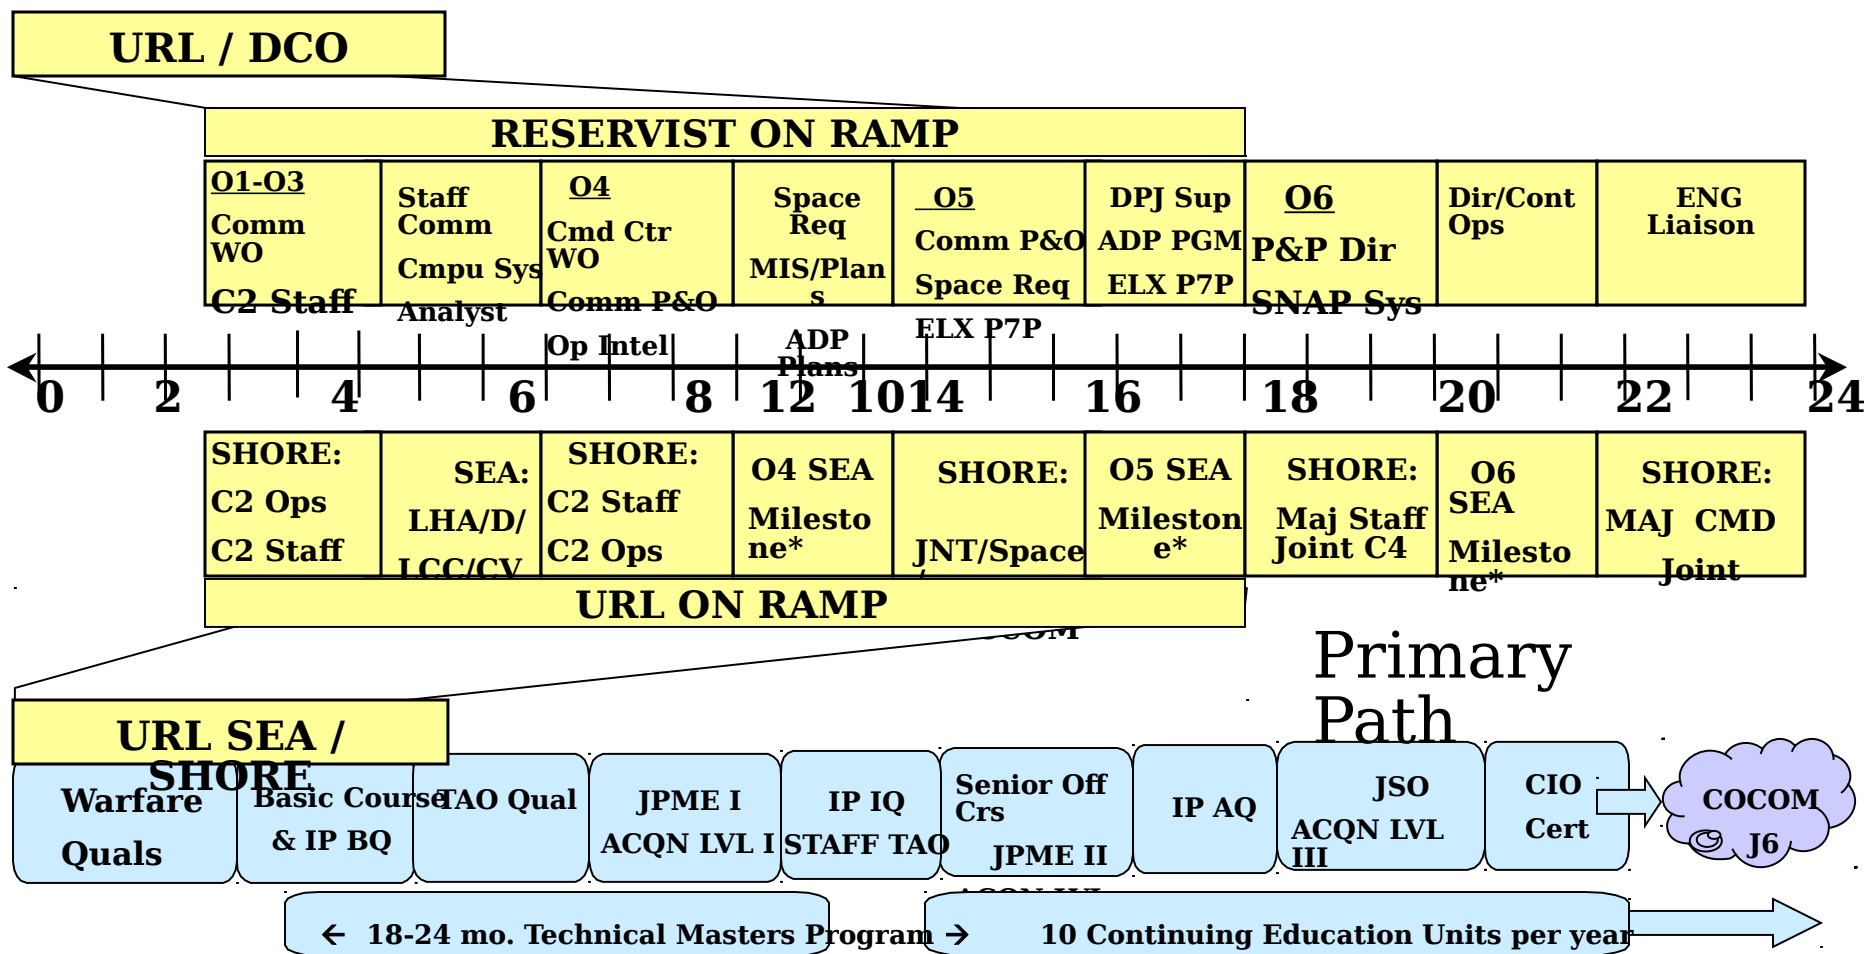

Community Background

Purpose/Mission: The IP Community was established in October 2001; Reserve Component followed in October 2002. The IP Community will “provide expertise in information, command and control, and space systems through the planning, acquisition, operation, maintenance and security of systems that support Navy operational and business processes.”

- Fundamental knowledge relative to naval information technology skills
- Equivalent civilian occupational expertise
- Significant current or past service in an IP related billet
- Attainment of Masters Degree (or higher) in a technical field
- Demonstrated success or potential in challenging leadership positions

Typical Career Path/Required Qualifications

Desired Career Milestones

- Lieutenant:

- Education and Learning. Most 1605s are laterally transferring into community. Billets: Communications Watch Officer; C2 Staff; Computer Systems Analyst;

- Lieutenant Commander:

- Advanced Education: Technical Masters Degree; Mobilization or IA Billets: Filling IP Billet: Some O-4s coming from AC; most lateral transfers from other communities.

- Commander:

- Continuing Education; Completion of IP Senior Officer Course; Civilian Security Certifications; Filling of Senior IP Billets; MOB, IA or Recall

- Captain:

- Continuing Education; Filling leadership roles of Reserve IP Community; CIO Certification

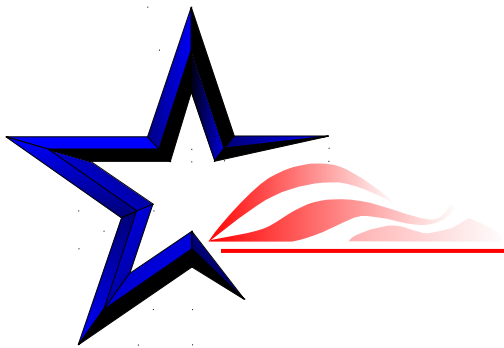

Reserve Requirements FY09 OPA vs Inventory

1605 FY-07 OPA vs INV

OPA	ENS	LTJ G	LT	LCDR	CDR	CAPT
Inventory	0	2	12	34	30	0

Summary

- IP designator (foremost consideration for slating into IP billets; down to 60% confidence factor)
- Advanced education
- Direct job experience in a civilian IP field
- Past IP billets (Active and Reserve)
- Certifications and technical expertise in systems management or security
- Mobilizations, IA, ADSW
- Completion of Qualifications (Active)